// BIOGRAPHY

Whilst studying for a degree in Music, Freddy spent two of the three years as treasurer of the Student Theatre Society (DST) at Durham University. During this period, he was involved backstage in numerous productions; in roles varying from lighting and sound design to producing and console operating. This led to opportunities at the Edinburgh Fringe and the opportunity to design professionally for music productions in Durham. Now studying for a Diploma in theatre production arts at Mountview, he has experience across Theatre, Opera, Music and Variety.
