How to prepare for your Mountview audition

MA/MFA Creative Practice – Directing/ Producing Applicants:

Submit a portfolio describing a specific example of your experience in your chosen pathway (Directing/ Producing). Your portfolio should include:

- Project Description: A written or video description of the project (maximum of 1000 words or 3 minutes), including the project's instigation, aims and any successes and challenges encountered
- Creative Depiction: A taste of the artistic/aesthetic experience of the project, which might include images and/ or video of the project itself, or creative depictions of the piece

MA/MFA Creative Practice – Dramatic Writing Applicants:

Submit a portfolio describing a specific example of your experience in your chosen pathway (Dramatic Writing). Your portfolio should include:

- Project Description/ Creative Depiction: Please select one of the requirements detailed above.
- Script: A ten-page example of a recently written original script. This could be an extract of the project in your portfolio, or a piece written for this application. The script should be aimed at performance in theatre or recorded media.

Your portfolio project should have been seen by an audience but is not required to be a traditional theatre or performance piece, we are interested in your creativity. Please treat creating the portfolio itself as an opportunity to share your creativity with us. Your portfolio will be reviewed by a senior member of the postgraduate training team. We are not able to offer feedback on portfolios.

Please submit the written elements of the portfolio as PDF files no bigger than 15MB and if submitting a video, no bigger than 400MB.

Application for the MFA is by the same process as the MA.

Following review of the portfolio (please allow up to 10 working days) successful applicants will be invited for an interview.
